CAPTIVATING STYLE

ELIE SAAB at Arabian Ranches III focuses on the highest standards of luxury and comfort, emphasising stunning green areas that are an extension to both the living space and the naturally rich surroundings. Each villa benefits from amazing views of the surrounding greenery, the finest lifestyle amenities and most importantly, the exclusive interiors designed by international fashion icon ELIE SAAB.

GLOBAL COUTURIER & DESIGN ICON

One of the world's leading names in Haute Couture and a red-carpet favourite, ELIE SAAB, takes inspiration from two great cities: Paris and Beirut, where his ateliers are based.

At the tender age of 18, he first launched his eponymous label with his Haute Couture line in 1982 in Beirut, expanding soon after into ready-to-wear and accessories, with each collection displaying the innate elegance and femininity for which he is renowned.

Today, ELIE SAAB is a lifestyle brand, with a presence of flagships and points of sale spread globally and a wide range of product lines to cater to the many enthusiasts of ELIE SAAB aesthetics.

REFINED URBAN LUXURY

The definition of elegant living, this magnificent collection of four and five-bedroom villas sits at the heart of the idyllic Arabian Ranches III, amid glorious green open spaces, in one of the most desirable areas of Dubai. With direct access to the stunning Central Park, this exceptional retreat is where timeless design and world-class lifestyle amenities combine to meet the expectations of those who appreciate contemporary luxury living.

MINIMALISTIC GLAMOUR

ELIE SAAB at Arabian Ranches III features a rich selection of architectural styles, with two types for the -5bedroom villas, and three types for the -4bedroom villas. The villas are all distinct in their contemporary composition of horizontal and vertical elements in a minimalistic language of clean lines and linear surfaces that brings a sense of sophisticated, understated luxury.

The large roof terraces allow residents to enjoy stunning views of the community park as well as Central Park, while the air-conditioned roof lounges expand this experience throughout all seasons.

DELIGHTFUL EFFICIANCY

From the moment you enter your bright, spacious home, you will notice the meticulous details incorporated in every square foot. The four and five-bedroom standalone villas provide expansive open space for living, dining and entertaining on the ground floor, in addition to a maid room and a spacious bedroom that can also be used as a guest room. The bedrooms upstairs provide ample storage space and delightfully designed bathrooms with contemporary sanitaryware and elegant finishes.
